RONNIE KING GROUP NEWS RELEASE

Multi-platinum, RIAA Diamond Certified, Grammy and Oscar Nominated producer and composer Ronnie King is happy to announce the progress of his numerous initiatives as he builds momentum in expanding and facilitating his company, the Ronnie King Group (RKG). With the ever-increasing demand for his services, Ronnie recognizes the strong need for an experienced management team to develop an overall strategy and to assist with growing RKGs operations and Brand worldwide. In recognition of this, Ronnie has enlisted several seasoned veterans from the media industry who have already opened dialogue with several Investments Banks and large music companies on his behalf.

The Ronnie King Brand has spread to Mexico, Panama, Columbia, Argentina and the Caribbean. Ronnie continues to function as a cultural attaché between the US and Latin America as projects draw him throughout the region working with award-winning talent. Over the years working in South America, Ronnie has produced, written, and/or performed with some of the biggest artists in that region. Mr. King has developed relationships with Film and Commercial film production powerhouses such as Zen Entertainment and Costa Rica Film Support. Through his philanthropies, Ronnie has also connected with the Costa Rican Ministry of Youth and Culture, Latin America's Top private university, ULACIT, and numerous non-profits including FUPER/Switch Costa Rica, the Foundation for Renewable Energy and Sustainability.

Closer to home, with the release of the Tupac Shakur film, "All Eyez On Me", there has been a rebirth of Tupac's music and legacy. Because of the friendship between Ronnie, Tupac and Johnny J over many years, Ronnie had the tremendous opportunity to perform many of the songs in the movie when were originally recorded. The movies, Straight Outta Compton and now All Eyez On Me has allowed Ronnie the chance to again work with many of the old artists he previously worked with from Death Row and Ruthless Records.

Ronnie has also been busy with his role as Music Supervisor for ASG Entertainment (ASGE). He produced the soundtrack for the ASGE film BorderCross that deals with human trafficking starring Danny Trejo and Lorenzo Llamas and now scheduled for a December 2017 release. This was the first soundtrack as Music Supervisor with ASGE and Ronnie looks forward to producing future soundtracks for films and television shows as well.

Presently, Mr. King is in active dialogue with several world-renowned writers for the writing of his biography. The working title of the book is Punks N Thugs will be a behind the scenes look of Ronnie's studio experiences and relationships with some of the biggest artists from the 1990s, such as Tupac Shakur, NWA and The Offspring. Ronnie continues to write, produce and perform with the rock band, Core 10 and the successful ex-drummer of Korn, David Silveria. Core 10 recently signed a deal to record with the famous producer Ulrich Wilde and to also produce a music video to go along with the songs. It appears there may be a record album eal forthcoming from a major label. Stay tuned for more exciting news from Ronnie King Group.
